- Protect your organization with a risk-based certification Scheme for Food Safety Management Systems (FSMS) that is flexible enough to cover multiple sectors in the supply chain.

- FSSC 22000 provides international acceptance through recognition by the Global Food Safety Initiative (GFSI) across applicable Sectors and the International Accreditation Forum (IAF).

- FSSC 22000 is governed by a non-profit foundation and managed by an independent Board of Stakeholders, free from biased leadership.

- FSSC 22000 fully incorporates ISO 22000 as the basis of the food safety management system, that includes the Codex-based HACCP principles, as well as the relevant sector specific prerequisite program requirements and the FSSC 22000 Additional Requirements.

- FSSC 22000 certification produces high-quality and consistent audits monitored by a robust integrity program and verified by licensed Certification Bodies and qualified auditors.

ABOUT FOUNDATION FSSC

Foundation FSSC is a leading global non-profit and independent Certification Scheme owner. Since 2009, we have been dedicated to continuous improvement of global food safety with our FSSC 22000 Scheme, and in 2022, we expanded our scope to social responsibility with FSSC 24000 certification. We support the consumer goods industry and related supply chains in implementing ISO-aligned management systems, reaching their certification objectives, and helping to achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goals. Through a robust integrity program and an advanced assurance platform, we provide trust and impact to our licensed partners.
